Chapel Hill Merlot - Hungary

€23.00

Distinct poached plums at the upper back of the palate with a touch of strawberry. This variety, which enjoys widespread popularity both in Hungary and internationally, can be described as medium-bodied with spicy notes and some tannin grip on the finish. This Merlot is the result of great care and the use of modern viniculture technology. Best enjoyed with red meats of all kinds and semi-hard cheese

Chapel Hill Pinot Noir - Hungary

€23.00

A tricky grape, both to grow and make into wine, but under our winemaker team's supervision, we have made a medium-bodied wine that shows true varietal character. Subtle savory, black cherry scents are followed by light bramble notes, with a hint of smoky oak finish. Matches roast turkey, duck with mixed fruit, sprinkled with this wine. This grape variety is a great accompaniment to game, cheese or fried cheese
