The Secret South Garden was an area where the Jameson whiskey family entertained many a guest.

King Edward VII often visited the Jameson family at their beachside home and on his last official visit to Ireland in 1907, he unveiled a plaque which was designed especially to celebrate the marriage between members of two great distilling families, Jameson and Haig, back in 1788.

The plaque stands in the Secret South Garden of the hotel grounds.

Our kitchen team have been inspired by these stories of times gone by and have put together a delightful afternoon tea experience inspired by our secret garden.

The Bee’s Knees Cocktail is made with Portmarnock Honey which is extracted on-site.
